Dr. Robert Weintraub, Headmaster

Dear Members of the Class of 2002:

At the Freshman Campus, your teachers asked me, "Where did you recruit this class? They are soooo great." Of course, you were not recruited; you are just a typical Brookline High class (maybe a little better than the ordinary crew). You are very smart (about thirty-three percent of you were inducted into the National Honor Society -- the highest percentage in the history of our school), multi-talented, very hard-working, fun-loving, upbeat, and just very decent and responsible people. I have truly enjoyed our time together -- in classes, in the cafe, in the corridors, in the atrium, in the Quad, and at your performances and athletic contests.

Remember: Freedom and Responsibility, Liberty and Duty, That's the Deal!

I will miss you. Always consider Brookline High one of your homes. Come back and visit us.

Fondly,

Dr. (Bob) Weintraub, your Monday Info-Time DJ

Mediation

Mediation gives you a chance to sit face to face with the person you are having problems with. You get to talk uninterrupted, so each side of the dispute can be heard. After the problem is defined, a solution is created. When an agreement is reached, it is written and signed. A student mediator is one of your peers who has been trained to conduct mediation meetings and make sure they are helpful and fair.

Martin Luther King Jr. Assembly

Martin Luther King Jr.
Amazing Leader
by Sophia Dauphin

Today should not be the only day to Honor such a great leader.

He was a man who preached POWERFUL speeches so that one day you all could sit next to someone of a different ethnicity and not be beaten, spit-on or arrested.

He put his life on the line not only for African Americans, but for all people of color and ALL of humanity

He was a man of vision

He wanted us as a people to be equal
And to UNITE...U-N-I-T-E !
He had his dream and many doubted him.
Yhe dream was successful. All people have won a victory.
Today should not be the only day to
honor such an amazing leader;

IT SHOULD BE ALL YEAR ROUND..!!

Cool, calm and casual is how he makes his way,
Always in the know about the sports of the day.
Stays current with his music and the fashion trends,
Lucky are those who become his friends.
Although he prefers to not stand out in the crowd,
That's never stopped us from feeling proud.
Because when it comes to Travis, it's easy to boast,
Where he excels is what matters the most.
Yes, his morals and values are always intact,
